

In my oppinion, it would be a greivous error on the government;s part to over ride the Indiana no call list. I personally feel telemarketer phone calls are an invasion of my privacy of sorts; to have my life iterrupted by someone coming into my home via telephone is a nuisance and nothing short of disturbing the peace.

Thank you for your attention,
Craig Steele